AVI Transponders issued by the Ground Transportation Permit Office are the property of Los Angeles World Airports (LAWA) and must be returned to the Ground Transportation Services Office when the permitted vehicle is removed from service and/or the company no longer operates at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). Use of AVI Transponder(s) on any vehicle(s) other than the one authorized is a violation of LAX Ground Transportation Rules and Regulations, Section II.2.8.

The company shall pay $50¹ for each damaged, lost, stolen or unreturned AVI Transponder. Unpaid fees to LAWA may result in the company's inability to receive additional AVI Transponders and Permits until all outstanding accounts have been settled with LAWA.

Registered Operator of AVI Transponder shall be responsible for all vehicle activity recorded and applicable fees.

I acknowledge, understand and will comply with all LAX Ground Transportation Rules and Regulations (<http://lax.to/gtrules>)
